

Job Title: Aerospace Development Manager

Accountable to: Business Development Director

Grade: Senior Management

Role Outline

Responsible for creating an environment that promotes, supports and encourages growth across the AeroSpace Campus at Prestwick.

Job Purpose;

- To develop, establish and promote the AeroSpace Campus identity at Prestwick.
- To support the future development and overall growth of the AeroSpace Campus at Prestwick.
- To assist Glasgow Prestwick Airport in the development of the spaceport proposition.
- To assist GPA and partners to coordinate activities of organisations from across the AeroSpace Campus to meet shared objectives.
- To work with SDI and South Ayrshire Council to attract new investment relating to aerospace and space technologies to the Prestwick Campus.

Personal Specification

Qualifications:

Hold recognised business administration/project management qualification or equivalent

Experience:

At least one years' experience of business development and marketing operating within the aerospace industry;

Experience of using presentations, web content and social media for promotion purposes.

Abilities, Skills & Knowledge:

Proven project management skills;

Excellent oral, written and interpersonal communications skills;

Ability to liaise with all levels of stakeholders, both internal and external;

Ability to communicate effectively;

High degree of competency in IT, use of social media, web content and document/media publication.

Key Attributes:

Pro-active; positive; driven and enthusiastic

Ability to use own initiative

Flexibility and Adaptability

Self Confidence

Excellent organisation skills

Professionalism

Integrity – high standard of confidentiality

Responsibility

Passion

Remuneration:

A competitive salary, this will be discussed upon offer, depending on the skills and knowledge of the individual.