TS Prestwick Holdco Limited ("The Group") owns and operates Glasgow Prestwick Airport in Ayrshire, Scotland, as well as managing an investment property portfolio. The directors present their strategic report for the year ended 31 March 2021.

Performance and future developments

The global pandemic has had a significant impact on our lives over the past 21 months. The impact of national lockdowns and international travel restrictions on the aviation industry has been challenging with many airlines and airports reporting record losses with aircrafts grounded for many months.

Travel restrictions impacted our passenger service in 20/21 with total passengers down 92% year on year. Our terminal closed for much of 2020 and many of our staff were furloughed under the Governments Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme. However, the strength of the airport lies in its diverse range of services and its ability to adapt, and we continued throughout the year to operate with our scheduled freighter services and to support freight charters including vital medical supplies to support the fight against COVID-19. As a result, our cargo volumes at over 13,000 tonnes were only marginally down on the previous 12 months and the second highest in Scotland.

The government-imposed travel restrictions also impacted our general aviation business for most of the period and although military aircraft started to return through the year, European and international military exercises were impacted and fuel volumes were down 49% year on year at 19 million litres, representing over £13m of the reduction in revenue. Tenancies on investment properties were largely unaffected by the pandemic, with the investment property portfolio contributing £2.4m of rental income to the group.

Overall, in a year of unprecedented challenges, the airport returned an operating profit before exceptional items of £0.5m. This highlights the continuing positive trajectory of the Group over the past five years.

In line with the requirements of IAS36, at the reporting date, the board have assessed whether there are any indicators present which indicate that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or have decreased. Given the Group's improving performance over the last 5 years and the outlook for the airport's future the board have determined that impairment losses within two of the Group's subsidiaries; Prestwick Airport Limited and Prestwick Airport Infrastructure Limited totalling £5.2m in respect of land, plant and equipment and motor vehicles should be reversed.

In addition, investment properties held by Prestwick Airport Limited, Prestwick Airport Infrastructure Limited and Airport Driving Range Company Limited have been subject to an independent valuation carried out by Ryden LLP. As a result, the directors have reviewed the fair value of investment properties and have recognised a £8.3m increase in the fair value of these assets in the profit and loss account. Investment properties consist of surplus land with investment potential, and landside and airside tenanted property. Included in the fair value adjustment is additional airside tenanted property now recognised as investment property with a value of £7.4m.

The total profit after tax for the year after accruing loan interest was £12.8m.

The impact of the pandemic has of course continued during 2021 with international travel restrictions in place continuing to affect our passenger business. We were however pleased to welcome passengers back in the summer 2021 and continued to see a gradual increase in confidence in travelling abroad. Our freight, general aviation and property businesses continued to build on last year and outperform forecasts year to date. In August 2021, the airport confirmed it is one step closer to becoming Scotland's first horizontal launch spaceport with the selection of a credible launch service provider, and in November 2021 the airport successfully delivered the safe arrival and departure of many Heads of State to COP26 in Glasgow, which was credit to our staff who rose to the challenge.

Looking forward there remain bumps ahead for the industry while the economic realities of the cost of the pandemic are realised, global supply chains and demand returns, and new potential variants of Covid-19 emerge. However, the success of the global vaccine programme and the determination of governments to see the economy recover has provided a platform for the board's confidence that it will be able to continue the recent trend in improved performance over the last few years.

Proposed Sale of Shareholding of Prestwick Aviation Holdings Limited

It remains Scottish Government Ministers' long-term intention to return Prestwick Airport to the private sector at the appropriate opportunity. During the Autumn of 2020 the business received notes of interest from potential buyers and investors. In November 2020, the Scottish Government advertised the business for sale inviting formal expressions of interest in the business. Following careful consideration of the bids received, there are currently no active bidders and there is no expectation that a sale of the business will take place within 12 months of the approval of the financial statements.

The Group retains the confidence and support of our shareholder and has recently appointed a new chairman to the board. The directors believe in the medium to long term the airport can continue the success of recent years by focussing on the development of new revenue opportunities and building on its strengths by providing a diverse range of services. The going concern status of the Group has been assessed on this basis.

Principal risks and uncertainties

The process of risk acceptance and risk management is addressed through a framework of policies, procedures and internal controls. All policies, risk management and internal audit are subject to board oversight and approval as well as ongoing review by management.

Compliance with regulation, legal and ethical standards is a high priority for the Group and the compliance team and senior management take on an important oversight role in this regard with the key risks maintained in a risk register which is regularly reviewed.

Principal risks include normal operational airport risks and credit, liquidity and foreign exchange risks are reviewed in note 19.

The audit committee is responsible for satisfying itself that a proper internal control framework exists to manage financial risks and that controls operate effectively. The safety assurance committee meets regularly to support the board with its responsibilities for reviewing, monitoring and enhancing safety security and compliance as well as providing oversight and support to the management to deliver operations in a safe and compliant manner.

The pandemic continues to have an impact on our people and as a business we have adapted as the situation has evolved over the last 18 months. We have regularly undertaken full risk assessments and implemented policies and procedures to ensure the safety of our customers and employees whilst at the airport. We have also utilised government's Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme where possible with essential employees continuing to work safely from home.

Since the end of the period most travel restrictions have lifted and the vaccine programme is proving effective. However, there remains uncertainty as to the pace of a global recovery and potential further government-imposed restrictions. The board and senior management continue to monitor the impact closely and adapt to circumstances as they arise.

Directors' section 172 statement

Despite the impact of the pandemic on the business the board of directors have collectively and individually promoted the company's success for its shareholders during the financial year ending 31st March 2021. Working together, we continue to develop our strategy and processes to deliver a sustainable business model which will secure the long-term position of the airport as a strategic asset for the shareholder as a key piece of infrastructure to deliver benefit for the Ayrshire economy in terms of both jobs and wealth creation.

Our short-term strategy continues to focus on critical business objectives with the key measures of success of continuing to stabilise and grow the business. The impact of the COVID-19 pandemic has slowed this progress down but during this difficult time the group's leadership team have strived to ensure the safety of our employees and customers, minimise costs and be as efficient as possible.

Our employee safety and well-being remain a key priority and we have throughout the pandemic continued to implement all COVID-19 government guidelines in respect of protective equipment and working practices. The board recognises the commitment and flexibility that our employees have shown during prolonged periods of lockdown, with ongoing COVID-19 risk assessments, frequently changing government rules and working patterns, and have communicated regularly with all staff during the period.

Our customers and suppliers have also been impacted significantly during this period and we continue to work closely with them to support them as their demand and supply chains recover.

The company continues to respect the communities in which it operates, and we are in regular communication with local government and regulatory agencies responsible for the environment and infrastructure in which we work.

The board of directors is committed to behaving responsibly and maintaining the reputation of the business through impeccable conduct and strong governance, sharing high quality information and conducting regular meetings.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES STATEMENT

The directors are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the group financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) as adopted by the European Union and have also chosen to prepare the parent company financial statements in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard (FRS) 101 'Reduced Disclosure Framework'. Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

In preparing the group financial statements, International Accounting Standard 1 requires that directors:

- properly select and apply accounting policies;
- present information, including accounting policies, in a manner that provides relevant, reliable, comparable and understandable information;
- provide additional disclosures when compliance with the specific requirements in IFRSs are insufficient to enable users to understand the impact of particular transactions, other events and conditions on the entity's financial position and financial performance; and
- make an assessment of the company's ability to continue as a going concern.

In preparing the parent company financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether FRS 101 Reduced Disclosure Framework has been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

TO THE MEMBERS OF TS PRESTWICK HOLDCO LTD

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of TS Prestwick Holdco Limited (the 'company') and its subsidiaries (the 'group') for the year ended 31 March 2021 which comprise the group statement of comprehensive income, the group and company statement of financial position, the group and company statement of changes in equity, the group statement of cash flows and the group and company notes to the financial statements, including significant accounting policies.

The financial reporting framework that has been applied in the preparation of the group financial statements is applicable law and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) as adopted by the European Union. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in the preparation of the parent company financial statements is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including Financial Reporting Standard 101 'Reduced Disclosure Framework' (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion:

- the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the group's and of the parent company's affairs as at 31 March 2021 and of the group's profit for the year then ended;
- the group financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the European Union;
- the parent company financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with UK accounting standards, including FRS 101 Reduced Disclosure Framework; and
- the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the group and parent company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the group's and company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the directors with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other information

The other information comprises the information included in the annual report other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The directors are responsible for the other information contained within the annual report. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. Our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the course of the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether this gives rise to a material misstatement in the financial statements themselves. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinions on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of our audit:

- the information given in the strategic report and the directors' report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- the strategic report and the directors' report have been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of the knowledge and understanding of the group and parent company and their environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatements in the strategic report and the directors' report.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept by the parent company, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- the parent company financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Responsibilities of directors

As explained more fully in the directors' responsibilities statement, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the group's and parent company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities is available on the Financial Reporting Council's website at: <https://www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities>. This description forms part of our auditor's report.

Extent to which the audit was considered capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above and on the Financial Reporting Council's website, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud.

We obtain and update our understanding of the entity, its activities, its control environment, and likely future developments, including in relation to the legal and regulatory framework applicable and how the entity is complying with that framework. Based on this understanding, we identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. This includes consideration of the risk of acts by the entity that were contrary to applicable laws and regulations, including fraud.

In response to the risk of irregularities and non-compliance with laws and regulations, including fraud, we designed procedures which included:

- Enquiry of management and those charged with governance around actual and potential litigation and claims as well as actual, suspected and alleged fraud;
- Reviewing minutes of meetings of those charged with governance;
- Assessing the extent of compliance with the laws and regulations considered to have a direct material effect on the financial statements or the operations of the company through enquiry and inspection;
- Reviewing financial statement disclosures and testing to supporting documentation to assess compliance with applicable laws and regulations;
- Performing audit work over the risk of management bias and override of controls, including testing of journal entries and other adjustments for appropriateness, evaluating the business rationale of significant transactions outside the normal course of business and reviewing accounting estimates for indicators of potential bias.

Because of the inherent limitations of an audit, there is a risk that we will not detect all irregularities, including those leading to a material misstatement in the financial statements or non-compliance with regulation. This risk increases the more that compliance with a law or regulation is removed from the events and transactions reflected in the financial statements, as we will be less likely to become aware of instances of non-compliance. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

1.3 Going concern

As outlined in the Strategic Report, the Group continues to see a positive trajectory in performance over the last 5 years. That combined with recent new appointments to the board and the confidence and support of our shareholder, the directors believe in the medium to long term, the airport can continue the success of recent years. The financial statements have therefore been prepared on the going concern basis.

The Group has overall net liabilities of £16.2m which includes amounts due to Transport Scotland in respect of historical loan funding. The loan balance, as of 31st March 2021 was £43m and together with accrued interest of £6m the balance included within net liabilities is £49.7m.

The Scottish Government acquired Prestwick Airport in 2013 and financially supports the business through the provision of loan finance. The last drawdown was in August 2019 and the business has not required further loan funding for over two years. The Group has £14m of cash reserves as at the balance sheet date and does not expect to require any additional loan support in the next 12 months.

Transport Scotland has provided written confirmation to the directors that it will not seek repayment of all or part of the loan facility or accrued interest until at least 31 March 2023, although support is expected to continue beyond this date for the foreseeable future. As with any group placing reliance on other entities for financial support, the directors acknowledge that there can be no certainty that this support will continue; however, at the date of approval of these financial statements, he has no reason to believe that they will not do so.

Transport Scotland and Scottish Ministers continue to strongly support the recently updated board and consider the airport as a long-term strategic asset. Based on this the board is confident that Transport Scotland will continue to defer repayment of the outstanding loans and accrued interest thereon for the foreseeable future (at least 31 March 2023) and until a suitable financial restructure can be agreed by both parties or alternatively on a future sale of the business.

The directors consider that this enables the group to continue in operational existence for at least the next 12 months, meeting its liabilities as they fall due, other than the repayment of amounts outstanding to Transport Scotland as noted above.

The directors have prepared profit and cash flow forecasts for a period of 5 years from the date of approval of these financial statements which have been sensitised to take account of reasonably possible downside risks, including the continuing impact of COVID-19 and potential uncertainty over further government-imposed passenger travel restrictions. The directors have concluded that given the diverse nature of the Group and the significant income from both freight and military revenue streams, COVID-19 does not create a material uncertainty with regards to going concern. The Group will have sufficient funds to meet its liabilities as they fall due for the foreseeable future and requires no additional financial support.

For the reasons set out above, the directors have prepared the financial statements on a going concern basis and have concluded that there are no material uncertainties related to going concern.

1.4 Revenue

Revenue is measured based on the consideration specified in a contract with a customer and excludes amounts collected on behalf of third parties. The group recognises revenue when it transfers control of a product or service to a customer.

The group recognises revenue from the following major sources:

- Fuel
- Passenger
- Aviation fees
- Freight
- Car Park
- Retail concession
- Property income

The nature, timing of satisfaction of performance obligations and significant payment terms of the group's major sources of revenue are as follows:

Fuel

Aviation fuel is invoiced, priced and recognised based on the date of fuel supply and charged at the contracted or published sale price on that date.

Passenger

Various passenger charges for handling and security, based upon the number of departing passengers, are recognised at point of departure. Aircraft departure and arrival charges levied according to weight and time of departure/arrival, are recognised at point of departure/ arrival. Aircraft parking charges based upon a combination of weight and time parked, are recognised at point of departure. The contracts entered into are short term pricing arrangements and judgement is applied to assess the impact any contract amendments have when determining the appropriate contract term.

Aviation fees

Aircraft departure and arrival charges levied according to weight and time of departure/arrival, are recognised at point of departure/ arrival. Aircraft parking charges based upon a combination of weight and time parked, are recognised at point of departure. The contracts entered into are short term pricing arrangements and judgement is applied to assess the impact any contract amendments have when determining the appropriate contract term. Also includes charges for specialist services including hire of equipment and labour.

Freight

Freight aviation charges are recognised as above. Freight handling, bond storage, transshipment and ETD screening charges are all recognised when the goods leave the airport facility.

Car Park

Car parking income is recognised at the point of exit for turn-up, short and long-stay parking. Contract parking and pre-book parking is recognised over the period to which it relates on a straight-line basis. The Group considers the performance obligation is satisfied through the provision of a car park space for each day the car is parked. Where car parking is booked through a third party, income and related commissions are accounted for on a gross basis as the Group is acting as a principal, rather than an agent, through its control of the pricing and availability of car park spaces.

Retail concession

Concession income from retail and commercial concessions is recognised in the period to which it relates on an accrual basis. The contracts entered into are long-term income-sharing concession agreements, with the concession fee based on turnover.

Property income

Rental income arising from operating leases on investment properties is accounted for on a straight line basis over the lease term. The contracts entered into are both short term and long term lease agreements. Other property income includes electricity, water, telecoms and repairs, all of which are incurred and charged at the point of consumption.

1.5 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are initially measured at cost and subsequently measured at cost or valuation, net of depreciation and any impairment losses.

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost or valuation of assets less their residual values over their useful lives on the following bases:

Included within plant and equipment:

Airport plant and equipment	5% to 20% straight line
Office equipment	20% straight line
Computer equipment	20% straight line
Computer software	33% straight line
Motor vehicles	20% straight line

No depreciation is provided on freehold land.

The gain or loss arising on the disposal of an asset is determined as the difference between the sale proceeds and the carrying value of the asset, and is recognised in the income statement.

1.6 Investment properties

Investment properties are stated at fair value at the balance sheet date on the basis of an external valuation. A professional valuation is carried out annually and any gain or loss arising from a change in fair value is recognised in profit or loss account.

1.7 Impairment of tangible and intangible assets

At each reporting end date, the group reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss, unless the relevant asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case the impairment loss is treated as a revaluation decrease.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss, unless the relevant asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case the reversal of the impairment loss is treated as a revaluation increase.

1.8 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is based on the average cost principle and includes expenditure incurred in acquiring the inventories, production or conversion costs and other costs in bringing them to their existing location and condition.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price less all estimated costs of completion and costs to be incurred in marketing, selling and distribution.

1.9 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities.

1.10 Financial assets

Financial assets are recognised in the group's statement of financial position when the group becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Financial assets are classified into specified categories, depending on the nature and purpose of the financial assets.

At initial recognition, financial assets classified as fair value through profit and loss are measured at fair value and any transaction costs are recognised in profit or loss. Financial assets not classified as fair value through profit and loss are initially measured at fair value plus transaction costs.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

When any of the above-mentioned conditions for classification of financial assets is not met, a financial asset is classified as measured at fair value through profit or loss. Financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss are recognized initially at fair value and any transaction costs are recognised in profit or loss when incurred. A gain or loss on a financial asset measured at fair value through profit or loss is recognised in profit or loss, and is included within finance income or finance costs in the statement of income for the reporting period in which it arises.

Financial assets held at amortised cost

Financial instruments are classified as financial assets measured at amortised cost where the objective is to hold these assets in order to collect contractual cash flows, and the contractual cash flows are solely payments of principal and interest. They arise principally from the provision of goods and services to customers (eg trade receivables). They are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs directly attributable to their acquisition or issue, and are subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method, less provision for impairment where necessary.

Impairment of financial assets

Financial assets, other than those measured at fair value through profit or loss, are assessed for indicators of impairment at each reporting end date.

Financial assets are impaired where there is objective evidence that, as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the financial asset, the estimated future cash flows of the investment have been affected.

Derecognition of financial assets

Financial assets are derecognised only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to another entity.

1.11 Financial liabilities

The group recognises financial debt when the group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments. Financial liabilities are classified as either 'financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss' or 'other financial liabilities'.

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial liabilities are classified as measured at fair value through profit or loss when the financial liability is held for trading. A financial liability is classified as held for trading if:

- it has been incurred principally for the purpose of selling or repurchasing it in the near term, or
- on initial recognition it is part of a portfolio of identified financial instruments that are managed together and has a recent actual pattern of short-term profit taking, or
- it is a derivative that is not a financial guarantee contract or a designated and effective hedging instrument.

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are stated at fair value with any gains or losses arising on remeasurement recognised in profit or loss.

Other financial liabilities

Other financial liabilities, including borrowings, trade payables and other short-term monetary liabilities, are initially measured at fair value net of transaction costs directly attributable to the issuance of the financial liability. They are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. For the purposes of each financial liability, interest expense includes initial transaction costs and any premium payable on redemption, as well as any interest or coupon payable while the liability is outstanding.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are derecognised when, and only when, the group's obligations are discharged, cancelled, or they expire.

1.12 Equity instruments

Equity instruments issued by the parent company are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs. Dividends payable on equity instruments are recognised as liabilities once they are no longer payable at the discretion of the company.

1.13 Taxation

Tax on the profit or loss for the year comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in the profit and loss account except to the extent that it relates to items recognised directly in equity or other comprehensive income, in which case it is recognised directly in equity or other comprehensive income.

Current tax is the expected tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred tax is provided on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. The following temporary differences are not provided for: the initial recognition of goodwill; the initial recognition of assets or liabilities that affect neither accounting nor taxable profit other than in a business combination, and differences relating to investments in subsidiaries to the extent that they will probably not reverse in the foreseeable future. The amount of deferred tax provided is based on the expected manner of realisation or settlement of the carrying amount of assets and liabilities, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date. For investment property that is measured at fair value deferred tax is provided at the rate applicable to the sale of the property except for that part of the property that is depreciable and the company's business model is to consume substantially all of the value through use. In the latter case the tax rate applicable to income is used.

A deferred tax asset is recognised only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which the temporary difference can be utilised. For investment property that is measured at fair value deferred tax is provided at the rate applicable to the sale of the property except for that part of the property that is depreciable and the Company's business model is to consume substantially all of the value through use. In the latter case the tax rate applicable to income is used.

1.14 Employee benefits

The costs of short-term employee benefits are recognised as a liability and an expense, unless those costs are required to be recognised as part of the cost of inventories or non-current assets.

The cost of any unused holiday entitlement is recognised in the period in which the employee's services are received.

Termination benefits are recognised immediately as an expense when the group is demonstrably committed to terminate the employment of an employee or to provide termination benefits.

1.15 Retirement benefits

Payments to defined contribution retirement benefit schemes are charged as an expense as they fall due.

1.16 Leases

At inception, the group assesses whether a contract is, or contains, a lease within the scope of IFRS 16. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Where a tangible asset is acquired through a lease, the group recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability at the lease commencement date. Right-of-use assets are included within property, plant and equipment, apart from those that meet the definition of investment property.

When the group acts as a lessor, leases are classified as finance leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessees, over the major part of the economic life of the asset. All other leases are classified as operating leases. If an arrangement contains lease and non-lease components, the group applies IFRS 15 to allocate the consideration in the contract. When the group is an intermediate lessor, it accounts for its interests in the head lease and the sub-lease separately, classifying the sub-lease with reference to the right-of-use asset arising from the head lease instead of the underlying asset.

1.17 Grants

Government grants represent amounts received under the coronavirus job retention scheme and are recognised in other operating income when there is reasonable assurance that the grant conditions will be met and the grants will be received.

A grant that specifies performance conditions is recognised in income when the performance conditions are met.

1.18 Foreign exchange

Transactions in currencies other than pounds sterling are recorded at the rates of exchange prevailing at the dates of the transactions. At each reporting end date, monetary assets and liabilities that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing on the reporting end date. Gains and losses arising on translation in the period are included in profit or loss.

2 Critical accounting estimates and judgements

In applying the Group's accounting policies, the directors are required to make judgements (other than those involving estimations) that have a significant impact on the amounts recognised and to make estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised, if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

The estimates and assumptions which have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets and liabilities are outlined below.

Debtor recoverability

A provision for expected credit losses is included in the financial statements in line with IFRS 9. Calculating expected credit losses involves making assumptions about the recoverability of trade debtor balances which is subject to management judgement.

Reversal of impairment

In line with the requirements of IAS36, at the reporting date, the board have assessed whether there are any indicators present which indicate that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or have decreased. Given the Group's improving performance over the last 3 years, the clarification to the business as to the impact of COVID-19 and the outlook for the airport's future the directors have judged that indicators existed at the balance sheet date that impairment losses recognised in prior periods may no longer exist or may have decreased and that therefore an estimate of the recoverable amount of assets should be calculated.

Given that the assets of TS Prestwick Holdco frequently generate cash when working together rather than singly, the directors have determined the recoverable amount of the cash generating unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs. It is the judgement of the directors that a single CGU exists for the group being the operational airport itself, incorporating each class of revenue stream and associated costs.

In order to estimate the recoverable amount, being the value in use, of the CGU to which assets belong, the directors have estimated future cash inflows and outflows based on approved budgets. These have been determined based on the historical experience of the directors and expectations of market development and are the directors' best estimate of reasonably anticipated performance.

2 Critical accounting estimates and judgements

Investment property valuation

There are significant judgements and estimates in relation to the carrying value of investment properties. These pertain to capital sales values per square foot or acre, and yield rates. The directors have engaged an expert valuer – Ryden LLP, to inform the fair value of investment properties, being an independent valuer who hold appropriate qualifications and who have relevant experience in both local and national property markets and with knowledge of the particular properties concerned.

Given the Group's improving performance over the last 3 years, the clarification to the business as to the impact of COVID-19 and the outlook for the airport's future, the director's have judged that previously unrecognised airside investment properties should now be recognised. It is the director's judgement that it is now probable that economic benefit will flow to the entity through ownership of these properties, and accordingly their fair value has been uplifted. This totals £7.4m of airside investment property which did not meet the recognition criteria in 2020 of IAS40 (16b) in that it was not probable that future economic benefit would flow to the entity given the uncertainties present at that time and such its fair value was £Nil.

This was offset by a deferred tax liability totalling £Nil (2020: £0.8m) relating to the revaluation of investment property. The deferred tax asset has not been recognised owing to uncertainty over its recoverability, specifically uncertainty over the timing and magnitude of taxable profits at the balance sheet date.

A reduction in the UK corporation tax rate from 19% to 17% (effective 1 April 2020) was substantively enacted on 6 September 2016. The March 2020 Budget announced that a rate of 19% would continue to apply with effect from 1 April 2020, and this change was substantively enacted on 17 March 2020. The UK deferred tax liability as at 31 March 2021 was calculated at 19% (2020: 19%). An increase in the UK corporation rate from 19% to 25% (effective 1 April 2023) was substantively enacted on 24 May 2021. This will increase the company's future assessment of deferred tax balances accordingly.

In line with the requirements of IAS36, at the reporting date, the board have assessed whether there are any indicators present which indicate that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or have decreased. Given the Group's improving performance over the last 3 years, the clarification to the business as to the impact of COVID-19 and the outlook for the airport's future the board have determined that impairment losses within two of the Group's subsidiaries; Prestwick Airport Limited and Prestwick Airport Infrastructure Limited totalling £5.1m in respect of plant and equipment and motor vehicles should be reversed. This is because the recoverable amount of those assets is in excess of the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised in prior periods.

In line with IAS36 paragraph 66, the assets of TS Prestwick Holdco frequently generate cash when working together rather than singly, and so given that this is the case, the directors have determined the recoverable amount of the cash generating unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs. It is the judgement of the directors that a single CGU exists for the group being the operational airport itself, incorporating each class of revenue stream and associated costs.

The recoverable amount of the CGU is its value in use, which uses cash flow projections based on financial budgets approved by the directors covering a five-year period discounted using a pre-tax discount rate of 3.14% which is the group's incremental borrowing rate without any country, currency or price risk adjustments applied. Financial budgets are based on the historical experience of the directors and expectations of market development.

The Group has conducted an analysis of the sensitivity of the impairment test to changes in the key assumptions used to determine the recoverable amount for each CGU. The directors believe that any reasonably possible change in the key assumptions on which the recoverable amount is based would not cause the aggregate carrying amount to exceed the aggregate recoverable amount of the related CGU.

As part of the impairment reversal exercise, the directors have determined that prior year property plant and equipment disclosures were incorrectly stated. Therefore, in the current year, the fixed asset register has been reconstructed and therefore now accurately reflect the historical cost and subsequent movements to the balance sheet date.

14 Investment property

The valuation of the investment property portfolio was performed by Ryden LLP, an independent valuer who hold appropriate qualifications and who have relevant experience in both local and national property markets and with knowledge of the particular properties concerned. The valuations were undertaken in accordance with the RICS Valuation – Global Standards (2020) “The Red Book” published by the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors on the basis of fair value.

The investment property portfolio comprises of surplus land with investment potential, and landside and airside tenanted property held to earn rentals.

The fair value of investment property held to earn rentals is determined using the income capitalisation method. The income capitalisation method is based on capitalising the net income stream at an appropriate yield. In establishing the net income stream the valuer has reflected the current rent payable to lease expiry, at which point the valuer has assumed that each unit will be re-let at their opinion of estimated rental value. The valuer has made allowances for vacancies and rent-free periods where appropriate, as well as deducting non-recoverable costs where applicable. The appropriate yield is selected on the basis of the location of the building, its quality, tenant credit quality and lease terms. A comparison has been made with comparable property sales to ensure the capital sale value is consistent with comparable properties. There has been no change to the valuation technique during the year.

The fair value of investment property that is not tenanted, but is held for capital appreciation as land or property with development potential is determined by reference to recent market data and known abnormal costs and is based on ascertaining a capital sales value per square foot or acre. In estimating the fair value of the property, the highest and best use of the property is their current use. There has been no change to the valuation technique during the year.

Included within the fair value adjustment is £7.4m of airside investment property which did not meet the recognition criteria in 2020 of IAS40 (16b) in that it was not probable that future economic benefit would flow to the entity given the uncertainties present at that time and such it's fair value was £Nil. Given the Group's improving performance over the last 3 years, the clarification to the business as to the impact of COVID-19 and the outlook for the airport's future, it is the director's judgement that it is now probable that economic benefit will flow to the entity through ownership of these properties, and accordingly their fair value has been uplifted.

Investment property brought forward has been restated to include a property which was incorrectly transferred to assets held for sale in 2020. This was done contrary to the requirements of IAS40 which requires that investment property without development which is to be disposed of should continue to be recognised as investment property until such time that it is derecognised. Please see note 26 for further details of the prior period adjustment.

Having conducted a detailed review of the valuation report to review appropriate assumptions have been applied, and discussed with the valuer the impact on the valuations of Covid-19, the board are satisfied with the valuer's conclusions.

Market risk - Foreign currency risk Group

The Group buys and sells aviation fuel in US dollars and is naturally hedged for the cost of the fuel. During the year the Group required US dollars to fund a purchase of equipment and used this to mitigate any exposure to foreign currency risk during the year. The Group is developing a strategy to reduce exposure to potential future foreign exchange losses and has put in place foreign exchange hedging facilities with its bankers to place forward contracts to assist with this policy.

Market risk - Interest rate risk Financial risk management

At the balance sheet date the Group has one fixed rate interest bearing loan which is not sensitive to interest rate changes.
